Message from Ken Double

President

Long Center Theatre Organ Society

As the months fly by – hard to believe 2007 is two-thirds gone already – it is time to invite you to renew your membership in the Long Center Theatre Organ Society. It is amazing to think about the things your membership and support has accomplished in Lafayette. How about:

- 26 years of concerts at Long Center;
- A complete reinstallation of the organ;
- A series that is the envy of groups across the country;
- A world-class organ with 21 ranks of pipes;
- Installed in a beautifully renovated authentic 1920's theatre;
- And most recently, a camera to allow to you see better the action of the organist's hands and feet at the console.

No other community of its size in Indiana can boast the long-term success of the LCTOS, and it is clearly the result of the support of you, our members.

Your membership renewal at the basic level right on up to Life Member helps us continue to provide the kind of music programming that is unique to Long Center; and that is the variety of popular music featuring the Mighty Wurlitzer Pipe Organ.

Please take the time to renew your membership. And more than that, we ask that you encourage your friends and family, neighbors and fellow workers to join us as well.

It helps us continue to present concerts, such as Indianapolis' Scott Foppiano in November, the classic silent film THE GENERAL with Buster Keaton August 31, my annual visits in June, and so much more.

The Mighty Wurlitzer at the Long Center is the best kept secret in Lafayette. It's time to tell everyone you know about that secret.

What keeps the music playing is you!!!

Lafayette's own Tonsil Klackers added a touch of merriment to Ken Double's annual June Concert. Above, they present to LCTOS a check, representing a donation of their appearance fees. To the right, the Klackers did an impromptu Happy Birthday to Elizabeth Bumbleburg, in black dress. Mrs. Bumbleburg, seated with daughter, Jeri McIntyre, is the mother of Joe Bumbleburg, member of the LCTOS Board.

How $$$ are Used

Your annual membership dues, along with gifts you make above the basic $25, are critical to the continuing activities of LCTOS.

Concerts do not make money for LCTOS; the cost of putting on a concert exceeds the income from ticket sales most of the time.

Your support pays for:

- printing, postage for a newsletter 3-4 times a year
- advertising and posters
- maintenance and tuning of the Mighty Wurlitzer
- the newly installed cameras to enhance your enjoyment of performances
- organist performance fees and travel

All personnel time to keep LCTOS running is provided by volunteers who simply love theatre organ and our Mighty Wurlitzer.

Paul Van Cleef, Bill Farner Named Honorary Life Members

Bill Farner and Paul VanCleaf, long-time board members and supporters of LCTOS, were honored at the June Ken Double concert by being named Honorary Life Members of the Organization in recognition of their many years of service. Paul stepped down from the LCTOS Board this year; Bill remains on the Board.

Upper, Bill Farner, his wife, Ruth, Dorothy VanCleaf, and Paul VanCleaf. Below Ken Double makes Honorary Life Membership presentations to Bill and Paul.

Annual Meeting

Ken Double was re-elected president of LCTOS at the annual meeting in June. Also elected were Nancy Burton, v-president; Jay Mermoud, secretary; Robert Mertz, treasurer; and board members Joe Bumbleburg, John Wellman, Bill Farner, and Dino Felluga.
